B. TERMS OF SCHOLARSHIP

- A limited number of full or partial scholarships will be awarded annually to outstanding applicants from jurisdictions outside Hong Kong, especially within the Asian region, who will be undertaking one-year full-time study at the University of Hong Kong in the LLM(HR) programme. In particular, we are looking for committed, experienced advocates working on transitional justice and the rule of law issues in their communities. Successful scholarship recipients must be dedicated to applying the knowledge they gain from the programme to continue this work after graduation.
- The scholarship shall be used for tuition fees and/or other approved expenses for the one-year full-time course of study leading to the degree of LLM(HR).
- The scholarship shall be awarded based on academic merit, relevant work experience in human rights, commitment and potential to excel in the field of human rights.

C. QUALIFICATIONS ATTAINED

We will refer to your application and supporting materials, so you do not need to repeat this information here.

D. QUESTIONS FOR APPLICANT

Please provide clear and concise answers to all of the following questions. Limit your responses to 300 words per question.

- 1) Work experience in human rights
Please describe a human rights-related experience from your own life and explain how it has influenced your development and current goals.
- 2) Career plans and/or aspirations
What are you hoping to gain from completing the LLM(HR) degree at HKU? How does the Programme fit into your aspirations and career plans?
- 3) Reasons for applying
Please provide details about why you are applying for a scholarship. Will you be receiving financial support from other sources? Have you already obtained a pledge of funding?
- 4) Your views about human rights
Please identify and briefly discuss an issue related to human rights that you feel passionate about.

E. I hereby declare that all the information provided above is true and that I am prepared to provide evidence in support if so requested.
